SINFUL TO BOB HAIR, SAYS PASTOR

Wren, Holland, Nov. 12 (A.P.)—
 Is it sinful for a fundamentalist minister to bob or shave a woman's hair?
 This question recently was placed before the Rev. Dr. K. F. Penhous, pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church, Wren, which some time ago expelled the Rev. J. G. deKorver, of Amsterdam, for casting doubt upon the story of Adam and Eve and the serpent in the Garden of Eden.
 The applicant for ministerial advice said he felt burdened as to how, as a true believer, he could cut off a woman's hair in the light of Paul's
 First Epistle to the Corinthians.
 Chapter II, verse 15, to the effect that a woman's hair is her glory.
 The Rev. Dr. Penhous, in a response, has replied to the question in five columns. He leaves it to the church to decide whether that woman is man's inferior.
 If a woman cuts off her hair, he asserts her independence, or merely to follow a silly fashion, the understanding of a sinful action.
 He says the fundamentalist pastor, he further asserts that long hair is symbolical of the divinely pre-ordained subjection of woman to man.
 Certain exceptions, however, are allowed and it is suggested that Christian women who want to be bobbed or shingled shall apply for a permit to their pastor or chief elder, who will certify whether the reasons for the proposed step are theologically admissible or not.

40,000 OUT OF JOBS AS CLOAK STRIKE ENDS

New York, Nov. 12 (A.P.)—More than 40,000 cloak and suit workers, leaders in an eighteen-week strike, today faced the task of getting new jobs.
 A three-year agreement, by which the workers give up their "right to the job" held since 1900 and demands for a thirty-six-hour week, has been reached by one of the three groups involved. The others are expected to make a similar settlement.
 Formal ratification still is pending, but the strike is considered to have ended when representatives of 35,000 employees and the Industrial Council of Cloak, Suit and Shirt Manufacturers, Inc., known as the "inside" manufacturers, agreed upon terms.
 The new agreement calls for a forty-two-hour week for the first two years and a forty-four-hour week thereafter. It partly follows recommendations of an advisory committee appointed by Governor Smith. Wage increases over the old minimum scales of from $4 to $9 per week are stipulated.
 Strikers are estimated to have lost $38,000,000 in wages while the loss to manufacturers also ran into millions.
 The strike was said to have been one of the most bitter in the history of the needle trades which have an annual output of $216,000,000.

PRIEST'S NIECE HELD IN $1,000

 Mrs. Mulachy frequently was a visitor.
 Miss Doody told the police she had signed the name of Father Mc-Donough to the check, and that the bulk of the check had been filled out by the Mulachys. She blamed them for the plot, the police charge.
 Mulachy, a prominent real estate man in Worcester, deposited the check at the Worcester Bank & Trust Company. Later, Mulachy sought to withdraw all the money in cash. Instead he was given seven $100 bills, treasurer's checks and one $5,000 check.
GIVES BACK $50,000
 When arrested Mulachy and his wife denied they had received any money from Miss Doody but produced a check for $10,000 signed by Miss Doody and endorsed by Francis Mulachy.
 Miss Doody, after her arrest, made restitution of $50,000. She said she had spent $50,000. Mrs. Mulachy in bail of $10,000 and Mulachy in bail of $5,000. Hearing was set for December 7 by Judge Fosdick.
 The attempt to loot the estate, police said, was discovered, when Father McDonough found his monthly statement at the Atlantic National Bank $75,000 short.
 Mrs. Doody, secretary and treasurer of the Doody Vapor Heating Company, has been regarded as one of the most capable business women in this section. Arrests of the three followed severe indictments by the grand jury.

 eleventh wedding anniversary, the divorce action of Nicolas Tsatas, Back preferred against the wife.

 Tsatas, who carried Miss Clayton

 the Paris officials as No. 28 Daudet

GARIBALDI'S CASE GOES TO MINISTER OF JUSTICE

Paris, Nov. 12 (A.P.)—Minister of Interior Sarraut announced, after a Cabinet meeting today, that the petition in the case of Nicotetti Garibaldi and Francesco Maschi, allegedly involved in the recent unsucces-ful Italian plot, would be turned over to the Minister of Justice.
 He formally denied published reports that a decree of expulsion from France had been issued against Garibaldi, who was brought here from Nice to be questioned in connection with the anti-Fascist activities along the Riviera.
 The closed case of the thing for the

FOGH HITS AT PERSHING

Paris, Nov. 12 (A.P.)—The statement of General Pershing, made in an Armistice Day speech at Chicago, that America's entry into the war saved the Allies cause, attracted almost as much attention here as did the speech of President Coolidge.
 "I have always had the most friendly relations with General Pershing and I can't believe that he made the bold statement attributed to him that America won the war," said Marshall Poeh today in the International News Service.
 "Nevertheless, although it is difficult to judge events of eight years ago, I am convinced that if a half million well-trained Americans had been on French soil in 1917 the war would have ended sooner than it did."

CULT INTEREST IS BLAMED BY DE JONY

That his wife's mind had become so affected by her faith in a new thought cult until she was no longer able to properly manage her estate, worth about $100,000, was the claim made by Ferdinand De Jony in Norfolk Probate Court before Judge McCool.

After the introduction of numerous letters containing references to initiation, guidance by the divine ideas and other peculiar phrases, the case was continued to Nov. 22, with the announcement by Judge McCool that if a conservator is appointed it will not be De Jony.

FORMER EMILY DAVIES SAILS FOR PARIS

New York, Nov. 15.—Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt 54 has gone to Paris to get a divorce, according to the Daily News.

But William H. Vanderbilt, 53, denies reports that there has been a rift in his family.

He admitted that Mrs. Vanderbilt has asked for Europe without their 17-month-old daughter. The child is with her father in a new apartment taken by young Vanderbilt recently.

The News says: Recent events have pointed to a definite dissolution of the marital tie between the prominent couple. It is agreed around the tea tables of the 400.

MUST PRODUCE 'MRS. R.' IN HEATH CASE

The Heaths of Hudson are an "admitting" couple, but Armistice Day came and went without any news being declared in the marital warfare that is now getting a second airing in court.

This airing, by the way, has been continued indefinitely until counsel for Mrs. Grace M. Heath can find the mysterious "Mrs. R." whom Irving E. Heath asserts is dead. "Mrs. R." was in a Hudson hotel room with Mr. Heath when Mrs. Heath and the police paid a social visit.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Heath admitted that his wife's counsel "Joan," and said that his wife never really had been pretty, she was all right when he married her, but she's "not so good now," he said.

He said he still loved her, and their daughter, and he was quite willing to "live and make up," only he bet "she wasn't."

EDWARDS HITS AT ARMISTICE DAY ORDER

A new controversy over the propriety of ordering American soldiers to advance on the Germans on Armistice Day, 1918, may be precipitated by the declaration of Major General Clarence R. Edwards, that had he been in command of the 26th Division the order would have been disobeyed.

"I would not have allowed them to take one pace toward the Germans," said the general at the dinner given by the City Government at Hotel Lenox.

"Who ever gave the order to advance will have to answer to a higher judge than an earthly one."

and to have passed between Mrs. Jany and Weston.

In use of them, it is alleged to have been written by Mrs. De Jany to Weston, there is a reference to a portion from her husband, "It was intended, but De Jany said it was his handwriting."

In another letter, signed by Weston, the opening paragraph reads:

"You have no idea how difficult it is for me to get a chance to write letters without it being apparent whom I am writing to, though nobody really seems to know."

SAV CHECKS TO WESTON.

Again he apparently gives her legal advice regarding her separation and division of the estate. He suggests that her lawyer might offer the suggestion that a mortgage be placed only on the Jany's share of the real estate, "especially as under the present arrangement he is to have the share."

De Jany admitted that his wife gave him one-half of her farm after they were married, and educated his two children by previous marriage. He said he now makes for various sums made out to Weston on his wife's check, and that she purchased a desk for Weston's office, contributing also to the home of Truth.

Simply by introducing a bill in the General Court providing that in the future manufacturers of cosmetics who send out adulterated or mislabeled boxes of women's cream shall be punished.

Back of this bill is the State Department of Public Health and fines of $100 to $500 will be the penalty if it becomes a law. Good reason for this action is that too many dangerous articles are now sold as cosmetics.

SAVING COOLIDGE BARS U. S. FROM WORLD COURT

"Good as Far as It Goes," Says Borah of Coolidge Talk

Washington, Nov. 12 (A.P.)—Mixed feelings in which approval seemed to predominate were expressed today in senatorial comment upon President Coolidge's declaration at Kansas City that there would be little prospect of American adherence to the World Court until the nations now members accepted the Senate reservations.

"Mistery good as far as it goes," said Senator Borah, who led the group of 18 Senators in vigorous opposition to American adherence even with reservations, but Senator France, Democrat, Maryland, staunch supporter of the Court with safeguarding reservations, declared that "the World Court will survive this majority."

"Fortunately for the country, the President remains a steady merchant," said Senator Borah, "and the Foreign Relations Committee, and no better occasion has yet been found for the continuing declaration of the President's attitude than Armistice Day, which marked the termination of American participation in foreign affairs."

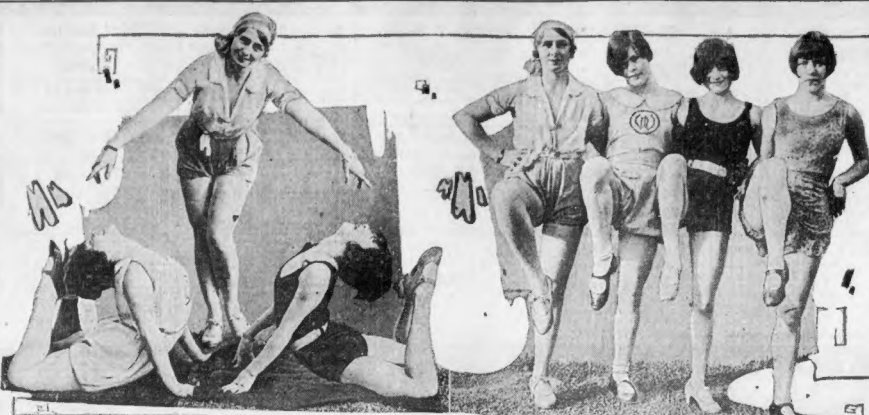

"The President's speech sets the index for the American attitude toward world events, and I go with him in declaring that the action of the Senate in ratifying the protocol of the so-called World Court, marks the limit of American entanglements in old world politics."

Berlin, Nov. 12 (U. N. S.)—Berlin newspapers today printed President Coolidge's Kansas City speech freely on the front page, but had no editorial interpretation or comment to offer on it.

Cuts Throat and Dies

Fitchburg, Nov. 12.—(U. N. S.)—Karl Kask, a tailor of Marshall street, who slashed his throat in a fit of despondency, died at the Bur bank Hospital. Kask cut his throat from ear to ear while at work in Main street, Wednesday morning. His widow and two children survive.

Keeps Neck Slender ~ Reducing Hips ~ Waistline Shrinks

WILL GIVE YOU A BEAUTIFUL NECK
This exercise makes the fatty tissue on the neck, face and back vanish. Stretch out prone on the floor, raise the body on the arms and bend feet toward the head. Repeat sixteen times daily, says Ned Wayburn, dancing teacher, whose pupils demonstrate the exercise.

REDUCES WAISTLINE AND THIGHS
This is another exercise which is recommended by Wayburn. Stand with arms on hips. Bend leg at knee and raise as high as possible. Alternate, right and left, sixteen times. This helps greatly in seeking a slender form, Wayburn says.

PLANS TO MARRY MAN SENTENCED TO DEATH

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12 (A.P.)—Robert Lee Bennett, who was accused of slaying his grandmother last July to obtain money so that he might marry, today faced the electric chair.

The 26-year-old youth heard a jury return a death verdict after deliberating an hour.

'Boyish Form' Craze Hit by Health Expert

This is the first of a series of six articles which Dr. Royal S. Copeland, United States Senator, has written of the dangers of the present-day craze for a "boyish form" figure.

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND.

Copyright, 1926, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

New York, Nov. 12.—We are a people of fads and fancies. If a thing is "the style," or if it strikes our fancy, it makes no difference what it costs in time, money or trouble. We do thoroughly whatever we undertake.

For these reasons when we are sent to prison for five years, duty would not tolerate such crusty and indecent treatment of a dumb animal.

WILL ADVISE WOMEN.
Suppose you habitually took away from the horse all his oats and half his hay; strapped him in a thick blanket and tossed him in a closet, hot or cold; hit him with a cart and lashed him into full speed, keeping it up for hours at a time—would that be considered cruelty by the average jury?

It would be, and no excuse of yours could reduce the penalty of the law. You would cry in vain that you were trying to make the horse better looking, to give it a "coltish form."

You smile at this, but fail to apply the thought to your painful, damaging and unscientific attempts at fat reduction.

I shall tell you how to grow thinner, but first I must make you see how foolish and dangerous the radical methods really are.

TURKISH TROOPS MOVE TOWARD MOBILIZATION

London, Nov. 12 (U. N. S.)—Troop movements in Turkey have led to many rumors of a mobilization, according to reports received here.

For some time the Turkish population has been aroused by reports of contemplated anti-Turkish action by Fascist Italy, and rumors about Constantinople are to the effect that the present Turkish troops movements are in preparation for any action which Italy might take against Turkey.

KING CHRISTIAN REFUSES TO ANSWER DRY QUIZ

Copenhagen, Nov. 12.—King Christian is unwilling to inform parliament whether he likes prohibition as a means of curbing drinking.

The dry inquired in a letter to the King: The Lord Chamberlain replied, saying the royal refusal to answer was a matter of principle.

ESCAPED BOY SPEEDER FOUND IN SOMERVILLE

After taking French leave of the State Department of Public Welfare, where he was placed pending court action tomorrow on charges of taking automobiles without the permission of the owners, thirteen-year-old Joseph Hill of Somerville was re-arrested today in Union square, Somerville.

Young Hill, who lives with his parents in Somerville avenue, is called an expert automobile driver and a "hot for speed" by the police.

TRUCK DRIVER FACES JAIL

After sleeping on it, Fred J. Bishop of No. 11, Melvin avenue, East Lynn, will determine today whether he will serve 30 days in jail or appeal the sentence imposed by Judge Wiley in Malden court.

Bishop was found guilty of taking a machine with faulty brakes and driving so as to endanger the lives of the public after his loaded truck injured Mrs. Amis, 5, of No. 15, Beacon street, Malden.

If he doesn't appeal two fines of $15 each, will be fined, otherwise they stand, as well as the jail sentence.

Asks Attorney Who Lost Tires to Defend Him

Pall River, Nov. 12.—Attorney Nathan Yarnes, who controls all of the business in this city, had an unusual experience in the second District Court. A defendant, Michael Parris of No. 302 Boston street, charged with larceny of a tire, tube and rim from an auto, made a public appearance and asked him to be his lawyer.

After hearing the story, Attorney Yarnes told Parris he could not represent him, as the tire, tube and rim were stolen from the Yarnes machine on Franklin street.

After a short time, Parris, Yarnes, and three men, including the Yarnes American-Advertiser, appeared in court.

MARSH GIVES HIS VIEWS ON R. O. T. C.

"The inspiration of our opposition to compulsory military training does not come from the Russia of today—that it is a charge too silly to be argued," declares Mr. Marsh in his annual report to the Boston University trustees at a dinner at the University club last night.

When for the first time since its compulsory feature of it, O. T. C. training was abolished at the College of Business Administration last spring. "Our inspiration comes from the Palestine of long ago."

"Military drill was started as a compulsory course in Boston University College of Business Administration with the opening of the school year 1911," his report continues. "My reason for abolishing the compulsory feature may be succinctly stated as follows:

"First: Because I am an American, and believe in America. I am opposed to humbugging, humbugging, or humbugging America. Compulsory military drill is foreign to the genius of America."

"Second: Because I stand shoulder to shoulder with all good Americans in their opposition to war. It seems to me that an accurate reading of history shows that military preparedness creates the will to war instead of the will to peace. I am not a pacifist in the modern meaning of the term."

"Third: Because I believe in Boston University. It was not founded to train men to fight. It was chartered to promote virtue and piety, and learning in the languages and the liberal arts and sciences."

"Fourth: I am opposed to compulsory military drill because I try to be a Christian. I do not say that those who differ from me are not trying to be Christians. But my idea comes from the Palestine of long ago."

"I am not ignorant of the claims made for military drill. So far as I can gather they are threefold: it requires the nation for defense; it helps maintain discipline among the students; and it aids in character development in that it teaches the boys submission to authority, and at the same time, it is one of the best forms of physical exercise."

However, the fact that we have allowed the course to remain as an optional one, and that it is paired with scientific physical training, shows that I am not rigid on the subject. I am not willing to have all or our students take military drill if they choose to do so. My opposition is to the compulsory feature of it."

NOBEL PRIZE AWARD BIG SURPRISE TO SHOW

London, Nov. 13 (Universal).—"It is a great mystery to me," said George Bernard Shaw, when informed that the Nobel prize in literature for 1925 had been bestowed upon him.

"I suppose it was given to me because I wrote nothing at all that year," he said.

For the first time in history Shaw said that he had no connection to make, and then said:

"I have never given the prize deep consideration, but I understood that it was awarded for the best book of the year. I wrote nothing in 1925."

When it was produced in 1924, Shaw was surprised that the Swedish translation of St. Joan was published in 1925. Shaw remarked: "Fascinating, possibly."

WOOD CUTS OUT FILIPINO BOARD

Manila, Nov. 12.—Governor-General Wood's order abolishing the board of control, the governing body of all government-owned corporations in the islands, continues to attract attention of political leaders to the exclusion of other topics.

Some Filipino leaders question Governor Wood's authority to abolish the board which was established by legislative enactment.

In the event Filipino leaders deeds to test the executive order abolishing the board the procedure probably will be to bring case to Supreme Court.

After a decision of the highest tribunal of the Insular government the case could be appealed to the United States Supreme Court for final decision.

Let Trial Soon Be Over Is Charlotte's Prayer

By CHARLOTTE MILLS

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 12.—Again the trial and it is a trial for me as well as for the three persons accused of my mother's murder.

It is a trial of my own courage, and I am afraid I have not been able to steel myself enough, to face some of the horrible moments in the court room.

I hope they are finished now with the gruesome testimony about the wounds on poor mother's body. Oh, come, I have heard very little of that because twice when the doctors were testifying I hurried out.

I didn't want to create any disturbance by fainting in the court room. But even while I rushed through the cold marble corridors of the little white courthouse in my room nearby, I could imagine the things they were saying back there, and those things kept beating into my mind.

Poor mother. What a terrible price she paid for her love. Sometimes I think she would have gone on loving Dr. Hall even if she could have foreseen her own terrible death. But I believe she would have denied herself that love if she could have foreseen the suffering it would bring to me.

Mother was like that. She would have loved anything for brother Harry and me.

Yesterday was a day of rest for me.

Surprise Witness Will Identify Mrs. Hall

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 12 (Universal).—These are the outstanding developments in the Hall-Mills case.

Senator Simpson is preparing to present another surprise witness who will testify to seeing Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall and Willie Stevens in Duane's lane the night of the murder. The witness has not appeared in the case before.

The State expects to finish presentation of its case by the middle of next week. About 30 more witnesses will appear for the prosecution.

It was announced by State Senator Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor.

He had a pale and quiet expression in black. Henry Stevens, of Frober than on other, a new blue suit. Willie was as usual in a gray suit.

record of the S. W. Straus organization.

The authorities should be to it that the suggestions made by Mr. Straus are carried out and that bonds offered to the public as SAFE FIRST MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE BONDS are actually that and nothing less.

MEANWHILE, it should be remembered that S. W. Straus is entitled to public gratitude—first, for giving the public safe investments with a good return, and second, for promoting needed buildings, as no other agency in the nation has promoted it.

THE FRENCH ARMY, "much reduced for economy's sake" will number this year 676,000 men and 157,500 horses. Germany, not allowed to keep a huge, standing army, has her 410,000 men and 222,000 horses working for a living, building up Germany's new prosperity.

French taxpayers, child and feeding the huge standing army, wonder why prosperity returns so slowly.

THE FRENCH ARMY is more than 600,000 greater than ours. At $5 a day, a fair average now, our 600,000 men are earning $3,000,000 a year. The government and taxpayers are paying nine hundred million other dollars, and more, that it would cost to feed, dress and arm such a standing army.

We are fortunate, so is Germany.

THE SWEDISH Princess marries the Belgian Prince, many women and children are injured in the crush.

Men have their revolutions, curtail the monarch's power, sometimes chop off his head. But the infatuation for "royalty" voluntary subsides before it, remains in the blood. You see it at the royal marriage in Brussels, and along the railroad track on Queen Marie's America tour.

IT IS A DEEP emotion, in honest and animal nature, to see a queen and some worker bees with food insufficient for the journey. Opening the package you find the queen fat, well cared, for by the workers storing themselves to let the queen eat. It's part of Nature's wisdom. Leaders are necessary and their care was important. The necessity has passed but the habit remains.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE does not appear to the suggestion that one Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs meet at Ottawa the council of British Premiers to discuss matters interesting both countries.

The President is right. This country should attend to its own business, here in the United States, and announce its decisions from here.

BUT IT would be better to meet on North American soil the Premiers of Canada, Australia and South Africa, than to go wandering off to Europe, where we are hated and not wanted.

WITH CANADA, especially, and with Australia and New Zealand, we should be most closely united, in friendship and good understanding.

We are the new countries, self-governors, with the same general ideas and sympathies. We have only friendship for them and they have shown no hatred for us.

Canada and the United States will soon hold the balance of world power and, united with Australia and New Zealand, will compel peace, for our part of the earth.

HOUDINI WILLS ESTATE TO RELATIVES

New York, Nov. 11.—Virtually the entire estate of Harry Houdini, magician, is bequeathed to his wife, his brothers and a sister, under terms which he will find here. The amount was not disclosed.

The Houdini collection of writings, on occultism were bequeathed to the American Society for Psychical Research, "absolutely and forever," his dramatic library was left to his wife, and the remainder of his library, the famous treatises and documents on magic, were willed to the Congressional Library at Washington.

One of the numerous provisions in the will is that the collection willed to the Congressional Library carry the inscription, "Bequeathed library of the late Harry Houdini." If this request is refused, the collection is to pass to the New York Library.

Houdini, who described himself as "Harry Houdini, former Ernest Vesce," directed that a bronze bust of himself and the work of the Essex sculptor, Canby, be erected on his grave.

Naval Observatory to Cut Out Giving Time Nov. 20

Washington, Nov. 11.—On November 20 the United States Naval Observatory will discontinue furnishing the correct time to residents of Washington by telephone. The number of telephone calls requesting the time has increased steadily from 400 to 2000 daily since the service was started, and the demand is smothering the limited facilities of the observatory.

6-YEAR CHASE LANDS SUSPECT

"Uncle Sam" never forgets and, though it may take years, usually gets what he goes after. It took six years and a search that led through a great part of the United States and parts of Canada to get Frank M. Gillen, Montreal street, Malden, for an alleged theft at the Boston post office.

Bernard P. Connor, under arrest in New York, will arrive here some time today to face the same charge. It involves the theft of $400 in Canadian currency, which disappeared from the post office in April, 1921.

GIRL TELLS OF RICH GIFTS IN BALM SUIT

Brockton, Nov. 12.—Rich gifts, including clothing and automobile rides to Boston, were part of the wooing of Joseph Zurichkshausen, Taunton and Attleboro merchant, Anna Johnson, beauty parlor worker of No. 131 Audubon road, according to her $15,000 breach of promise suit.

During her testimony, given in Plymouth County Superior Court here, Miss Johnson frequently broke down, weeping copiously and delaying the trial.

She said she was 16 when she first met Zurichkshausen, and within a month knew him every night except Saturday, and was treated "wonderfully." Every time he called to see her he brought a gift. He gave her a wrist watch, a fur coat, beautiful dresses and a diamond ring, she said.

The diamond ring, she said, was an engagement ring, and they were to be married as soon as arrangements could be made, discussing plans in her mother's presence.

HUSBAND GONE SINCE 1923 SUED FOR DIVORCE

Worcester, Nov. 12.—Clifton B. Perry, widely known here as a singer, who disappeared suddenly from the city in 1923, has been located.

With the disappearance of a well-known local woman singer, is being sued in Probate Court for a divorce by Mary Perry of this city, who charges him with desertion and asks to be granted custody of their son Robert.

NEW YORK PARENTS ASK AID TO LOCATE SON

Pinhas Litman, of No. 718 East One Hundred and Seventy-fifth street, New York, has asked the editors of the Boston newspapers to find his son, Matthew Litman, missing since August 8. He is sixteen years of age, six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds.

When the boy left home he wore a khaki shirt, pants to match and tennis shoes. A letter was received by his brother stating that he would change his name and never be seen again. It is believed that the boy is working in a restaurant.

SAVANT SEES END OF 'OLD AGE'

For Dr. Leach wanted a lot of time searching for the Fountain of Youth. When man sheds his age and goes back to childhood it will be through the work of chemists and doctors.

That's the belief of Professor J. F. Norris, president of the American Chemical Association, forecasting the progress day when men of the advanced three score and ten will convert like children for they will be competitive children in an age of mathematics.

A kind-hearted pathologist is needed to start the good work along by endeavoring an institution which can take up the work of creating substances destructive to bacteria and making them harmless to the human being.

The professor's vision into the future was presented to the Speech Readers' Guild of Boston, all deaf persons, at the Arlington Street Church.

Coolidge Uses Blanket War Mother Offers Him in West

Kansas City, Nov. 13.—President Coolidge was probably saved a severe cold by a war mother. Mrs. Catherine Brew, who sent her wool blanket to the President so that he might be protected from the cold blast as he sat on the platform 20 minutes before he made his speech.

The piercing air soon reached the President as he took his seat, and he asked for some protection. Mrs. Brew heard his request, and traveled the cold air so that she might conserve the President's health. "I was too much aroused to mind the cold," she said, "and did not mind the weather. I am all right and I will doubly enjoy the blanket after it has been used by the President."

SA'S BRITAIN DOESN'T U. S. COURT

By NORMAN HAPGOOD.

Washington, Nov. 13.—While President Coolidge was repeating his World Court position in Kansas City, Senator Thomas J. Walsh was making a convention here a most extraordinary aspect of the situation in the United States.

The President has made it clear repeatedly that he stands by the Senate reservations and that if the other member nations do not accept those reservations he will not submit anything further on the subject to the court.

The whole difficulty lies in the reservation which the United States has vetoed on any subject being brought before the court without her consent if it is one in which she has or claims to have an interest.

MATTER OF RIGHT.
The big powers that are permanent members of the council admit that the United States should have any right regarding "the court" that any one of them has, as the council must be unanimous except in matters of procedure, any member can prevent the submission of any question to the court, unless a question is a matter of procedure.

It is a majority is enough to set it. It is a matter of procedure, a question belonging to the council has no right of veto and the member nations would have to abide to their objection.

But, it is very likely, indeed it is probable, that it is not a matter of procedure at all, but a matter of substance. Why have the nations concerned not taken the perfectly obvious method of finding out?

WOULD NOT GUESS.
The perfectly obvious method of finding out would be to ask the court itself. Then, if it had made the more probable decision the European decision would have been abandoned. If it had made the opposite decision the situation would have been at least improved a little by being made clear.

I asked Senator Walsh why in his opinion this most obvious and important step had not been taken. He did not care to guess, but contented himself with pointing out the opportunity that lay before the nations to make their own decision.

I also asked him why nobody in the United States had thought to suggest it, as the State Department has been trying to work out the matter. Again he declined to guess.

BRITAIN WINS ENDS.
But it was strongly hinted in certain quarters that Great Britain now exercises a preponderant influence on the court, which she would be sorry to lose by having to become a member and that she takes the subtle and polite way of raising a difficulty which could be removed if she really wanted to.

It is also hinted that she is really a friend of the United States and that she is really a friend of the United States and that she is really a friend of the United States.

Trolley Co. Reports Theft of 2700 Feet of 'Feed Wire'

Springfield, Nov. 13.—Springfield Street Railway officials reported to West Springfield police today that between 250 and 300 feet of feed wire, installed for a number of years to feed the trolley line run to the south on Tabbs Hill, had been cut down and taken from the company poles.

LAWRENCE GAS VICTIM ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

BIG SLUMP IN IMMIGRATION

Washington, Nov. 13.—The United States admitted only half as many immigrants from all Europe in September as formerly came from a single country, Commissioner-General of Immigration Hull announced today.

With his seaboard "front door" closely guarded by the quota law, only 15,435 immigrant aliens were admitted in that period from all European countries. In September, 1912, six of three countries—Italy, Austria-Hungary, and the former Russian Empire—furnished three quarters of the total.

The land borders "back door" of the Labor Department is seeking to close by extension of the quota law to immigrants from Canada and Mexico who continue to be the chief sources of present-day immigration. Hull pointed out, "contributing nearly half of the total immigrants for September."

More than 11,000 poured in from Canada, and 6,535 from Mexico, Hull said.

BARRICADE ROW OVER LAWSON ESTATE

Bolton, Nov. 11.—There's a game of baronage going on in "The Flowering" row leading to Dr. Arnold's estate, once the palatial estate of the late Thomas W. Lawson, and within the last few months converted into an inn.

Frank W. Diller, investment broker of No. 101 Milk street, Boston, who owns the inn, has three times removed wooden horses, reinforced by lumber from the rail. He hopes he will not have to do so again.

Arnold W. Lawson, son of the late financier, lives on the road in a cottage with his wife and two children. He said he placed the original baronage there but does not know anything about the other two baronages.

Mr. Diller, with the approval of the Children's Hospital and the cottage where Arnold Lawson resides are the only parcels of the original Lawson estate he does not own. He said he had offered to sell Arnold's cottage but the latter asked $100,000 for it.

Arnold Lawson denies this, saying he has refused offers to sell his Diller.

LONDON BISHOP BEATEN IN TENNIS MATCH

Osland, Cal., Nov. 11.—Discouraged by his ecclesiastical retirement for a season of tennis, the Rt. Hon. and Rt. Rev. Arthur Poley Winchester, London Bishop of London, moved quarters on the tennis court with two prominent American players—Wills and Williams Johnston.

Paired with Miss Wills, the Lord Bishop was on the losing end to Johnston and Dr. Sumner Hardy, a former champion, 4-6, 3-6.

"I think this is the longest session of tennis I ever had on hard courts," he said. "I'll know better tomorrow how I liked it."

The Lord Bishop is 61 years old.

FORMER LADY DOUGLAS PLANS 4TH WEDDING

London, Oct. 13 (Universal).—Peggy Joyce and Jess Mack have a dangerous rival in the international marriage market. She is Georgian, former Lady Sholto Douglas, beautiful daughter of a Dutch millionaire.

Her first husband was Captain Barnard, a British army officer, their union being dissolved by the courts. Her second was Lord Sholto Douglas, penniless son of the eighth Marquis of Queensberry, whom she divorced two years ago.

In May, 1921, Georgia became the bride of Prince Surian Edidin, son of the deposed Sultan, Abdul Hamid. Three months later the Prince only declared the union cancelled because it was only a "second class marriage."

SELL SCHOONER FOR CRASH DAMAGES

The fishing schooner Gyda, once a palatial yacht, was sold at United States Marshal sale at Gloucester, Tuesday to satisfy claims arising from a collision with the Portland oil tanker Miranda II, on October 13. The report that the sale resulted from the Gyda's being implicated in a run-running was erroneous. She was, however, captured by the coast guard and brought to Boston last winter on file charge.

CLERK CHARGED WITH $2,500 EMBEZZLEMENT

Claremont, N. H., Nov. 12.—Two days after his wife and young son left, James Benjamin Schenck, 35, employed by a clothing and furniture store, also disappeared. It was reported to police here today. With him went $2,500 of the firm's money. His employees charged in swearing out a warrant charging embezzlement.

EMBASSY KEPT BUSY DENYING DUC'S DEATH

FIND HUB MAN GUILTY OF ATTACK

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 12.—Much ado over one bottle of liquor had its sequel in Federal Court here when Salvatore Rabbita, of Boston, was found guilty of attacking and assaulting a customs officer, Leopoldo Palla of East Boston was acquitted.

Palla acted as peacekeeper in a quarrel between his friend Rabbita and a customs officer named C. C. C. at Caneau station, he said, and was knocked down and struck while doing so.

Colum, on the other hand and other witnesses said there was a quarrel over a bottle of liquor found in the car in which the men were riding and that Rabbita drew his knife, cutting Caneau's hand.

BOY IS BLAMED FOR SHOOTING OF GIRL, 14

Chicago, Nov. 11.—The mystery surrounding the shooting of two school girls here, within 34 hours, was partly dispelled when a 14-year-old school boy was held responsible for the accidental shooting of one of the girls while firing at birds.

His victim was Esther Hane, 14, who was shot in the back and seriously injured, while in a field near their home at Blue Island, a suburb.

No progress has been made, however, in finding the slayer of Victoria Emily Delamater, 15, who was shot and killed near her home in Chicago.

Chicago Heights police denied the killing of the eleventh girl must have been the act of a man.

Their principal theory that the girl had been mistaken for another girl who had quarreled with her sister, Arthur.

and that the sister might have been the killer, was dispelled when he was found to be in an insane asylum.

SEEK MOTHER WHO CLAIMED INFANT

The police today were not content to leave the mother who claimed her six-week-old daughter on a dainty plain davenport and then repented of her act, charged it and vanished.

An investigation was begun by a special officer assigned to trace her, but he was making little progress.

At the Chardon street home it was understood he was given no encouragement, being told they did not have any information concerning the woman, her name, or her address.

Whether the publicists given to finding the baby, or through remorse for her act, the mother called at the Catholic Charitable Bureau, less than 24 hours after it was found.

Tearfully she pleaded for the little one, and professed repentance. Her plight made a deep impression on the officials, and they set in touch with the Chardon street woman, with the result that the baby was turned back to its mother's arms.

At the Catholic Charitable Bureau all information was withheld. The supervisor in charge said it was customary to consider such matters confidential.
